

Youth ArtReach Grant

Youth desiring an ArtReach Grant must be enrolled in a Rockwall County K-12 school or alternate schooling. In addition to their application, they should provide a letter of recommendation from a non-family member with knowledge of the child's interest and ability in the Arts. Family income may not exceed 200% of the Health and Human Services Poverty Guidelines. The award will be sent directly to the provider. The instructor must provide the Alliance with the student's progress and attendance report at the end of each semester. If, for any reason the child should discontinue the lessons, the entire remaining balance will be returned to the Alliance and the ArtReach Fund.
